SUMMARY

Representatives Judy Clibborn and Fred Jarrett will be joining the Mercer Island City Council this evening to discuss the upcoming 2008-2009 Legislative Session. Representative Clibborn remains the Chair of the House Transportation Committee and Representative Jarrett remains a committee member. The House Transportation Committee approves the state transportation budget, revenue sources for transportation funding, and issues relating to transportation policy and transportation agencies, including the Department of Transportation. We have asked your Representatives to include a discussion of transportation matters likely to be discussed in the 2008-2009 Legislative Session, including any discussions regarding tolling of the 520 bridge and of I-90.

RECOMMENDATION

Londi K. Lindell, Deputy City Manager

MOVE TO: No action required. Conduct study session discussion.
